

I am writing with regard to the "No Call" list in Indiana. This has been such a wonderful thing for our family. When the phone rings, it is actually someone I wish to talk to, someone I know. Before the "no call" list I felt prayed upon by the non-stop calls by telemarketers etc. Please do not do away with the "no call" list. It is an invasion of my privacy to have to let people I do not know into my home via the telephone. The telephone was not meant for such a purpose. If I want to contribute, buy, or talk the people who make these annoying calls, I will call them. They are a business-I am not and therefore should not receive calls from random people. Thank you, Cathy Spigarelli
